Present: Jill Miller, Art, Music, Theater; Judy Awong-Taylor, Biology; Leon Jaynes, Chemistry, Physics; Kathy Bennett, Criminal Justice, Social and Political Science; Richard McGrath, Economics; Dick Nordquist, General Studies, Jim Todesca, History; Karen Hollinger, Languages, Literature, & Philosophy; Dale Kilhefner, Mathematics; Steve Taylor, Psychology. Guest: LCDR, Ernest Lefler, USN.

I. The minutes of the April 10-15, 2002 virtual meeting were approved.

II. The proposals from the Naval ROTC Program, jointly administered by Savannah State University and Armstrong Atlantic State University, were approved in principle, but was remanded pending some clarifications. In particular, the committee asked LCDR Lefler to return to the next meeting with proposal that demonstrates changes in both course descriptions and in the program of study.

III. A proposal from the Department of Criminal Justice, Social and Political Science to modify the department’s offering by adding “. . . or POLS 2100” to the prerequisites for the following courses:
   · POLS 3300, Political Philosophy: Ancient and Medieval
   · POLS 3310, Modern Political Philosophy
   · POLS 3320, American Political Thought
   · POLS 3330, Contemporary Political Thought was remanded since there was some uncertainty about how this change would affect POLS 3320. The prerequisites for POLS 3320 currently read “POLS 2100 and either HIST 1100 or POLS 1100"

IV. A proposal from the Department of Economics was approved to modify the internship offerings in the following ways:
   1. To change grading for ECON 4520, 4530, and 4540, Internship, from Normal/Audit to Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory.
   2. To add the stipulation that students may take only one internship as one of their eight upper division economics classes.

CURCAT:
Thus the revised catalog copy and program of study should read:

ECON 4520, -30, -40 INTERNSHIP 3-0-3
Prerequisite: permission of instructor or department head
Open to juniors or above. Applied economic setting using nonprofit agencies such as the Chamber of Commerce, as well as financial institutions and international businesses. Supervision by departmental instructors and agency officials. Students may take only one internship as one of their eight upper division economics classes. Open to transient students only with permission of department head.

B. Major Field Courses ........................................................................................................................................33 hours

International
- ECON 3100 - Multinational Economic Enterprises
- ECON 3200 - International Trade
- ECON 4310 - International Financial Institutions
- ECON 4400 - Seminar in Third World Economic Development
- ECON 4450 - Comparative Economic Systems

Quantitative
- ECON 3600 - Mathematical Economics
- ECON 3700 - Econometrics

Applied
- ECON 3300 - Money and Banking
- ECON 3400 - Economics of Labor
- ECON 3500 - Managerial Economics
- ECON 4100 - Financial Economics
- ECON 4150 - Money and Capital Markets
- ECON 4460 - Economic Analysis of the Law

Public Policy and Economic History
- ECON 3450 - Environmental Economics
- ECON 3630 - Economic History in the US
- ECON 4410 - Regional Economics
- ECON 4500 - Public Finance
- ECON 4550 - Public Choice

Internships and Specialized Courses
- ECON 4520, -30, -40 - Internship (with permission of department head) (maximum of one internship may count toward degree)
- ECON 4010, -20, -30 - Special Topics (with permission of department head)

The next meeting was scheduled for October 11, 2002.

Respectfully submitted,
Mark Finlay