The meeting was called to order at 12:30 PM, Monday, December 9, 2002, in Gamble 205. The names of those present are shown in bold:

Roger Miller, Art, Music, & Theater;
Judy Awong-Taylor, Biology;
Leon Jaynes, Chemistry, Physics;
Kathy Bennett, Criminal Justice, Social, & Political Science;
Richard McGrath, Economics;
Dick Nordquist, General Studies;
Jim Todesca, History;
Karen Hollinger, Languages, Literature, & Philosophy;
Dale Kilhefner, Mathematics;
James Handley, Military Science;
Steve Taylor, Psychology

I. The minutes of the November 1, 2002 meeting were approved.

II. From the Department of Criminal Justice, Social, & Political Science:
   A. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
      Proposal to add the following course to the department’s offering:
      CRJU 3170, CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION 3-0-3
      Prerequisite: CRJU 1010 (Introduction to Criminal Justice) and CRJU 2020 (Ethical Theories and Moral Issues in Criminal Justice).
      Description: Survey of basic concepts and principles concerned with the administration and management of agencies within the criminal justice system. Emphasis will be placed on organizational structure, functions and behavioral processes.

      Rationale: Currently we do not offer an undergraduate class that addresses the structure, function and behavioral processes of organizational management within the criminal justice system. This knowledge is essential for students as they matriculate through other, more advanced upper division criminal justice classes. The new requirement is also necessary due to changes being made in political science with respect to POLS 2601. The new course will not require additional faculty resources as Dr. Josi has taught a similar course at another university. Also, these prerequisites are adequate preparation for CRJU 3170.

      CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003 Cross-listed: None
      Repeatable: No Grading: Normal Instruction Type: Lecture Equiv. Course: No

   B. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
      Proposal to replace CRJU 4100, Change Criminality and Abnormal Behavior with CRJU/SOCI 3180, Deviance and Social Control. Thus the revised catalog copy and program of study should read:
      CRJU 3180, DEVIANCE AND SOCIAL CONTROL 3-0-3
Armstrong Atlantic State University
Minutes for the Arts & Sciences Curriculum Committee Meeting
Monday, December 9, 2002

Prerequisite: CRJU 1010 (Introduction to Criminal Justice) or SOCI 1101 (Introduction to Sociology).
Description: Nature of deviance, social behavior that departs from that regarded as normal or socially acceptable within a society or the social context, with a focus on sociological theories of deviance. Deviance and social control are revealed as complex social processes, cultural arrangements, and cultural adaptations.

Rationale: This course has already been developed and taught as a special topics course by Dr. Rinalducci. It proved to be a popular course for criminal justice majors. The old CRJU 4100 (Criminality and Abnormal Behavior) has not been offered in the recent past. Further, a course in psychology (PSYC 3280 Abnormal Behavior) already exists and is taught regularly by faculty in the Department of Psychology.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003  Cross-listed: with SOCI 3180
Repeatable: No  Grading: Normal  Instruction Type: Lecture  Equiv. Course: No

C. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change CRJU 1020, Ethical Theories and Moral Issues in Criminal Justice, to CRJU 2020, and to increase credit hours from two to three. This revised course will become a required course in Area F for both AS and BS Criminal Justice majors.
CRJU 2020, ETHICAL THEORIES AND MORAL ISSUES IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE  3-0-3
Prerequisite: None

Rationale: There is enough content to justify changing the two credits to three, and the change in course numbering is more appropriate. Students would thus take this course after completing CRJU 1010 and CRJU 1030.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003  Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No  Grading: Normal  Instruction Type: Lecture  Equiv. Course: No

D. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change the number of CRJU 1200, Introduction to Law Enforcement, to CRJU 2210. This course will become a required course in Area F for both AS and BS Criminal Justice majors.
CRJU 2210, INTRODUCTION TO LAW ENFORCEMENT  3-0-3
Prerequisite: CRJU 1010

Rationale: The change in course numbering reflects the logical sequencing so that students take this course after CRJU 1010 and are exposed to more advanced material in law enforcement.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003  Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No  Grading: Normal  Instruction Type: Lecture  Equiv. Course: No
E. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change CRJU 2100, Criminology, to CRJU 3150.
Criminology will be moved from Area F into Major Course Requirements for BS Criminal Justice majors.

CRJU 3150, CRIMINOLOGY
3-0-3
Prerequisite: CRJU 1010 and ENGL 1101

Rationale: This course is a more in depth examination of criminological theories and is more appropriately listed as an upper-level course, typically taken by students with junior standing.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003  Cross-listed: None
Repeateable: No  Grading: Normal  Instruction Type: Lecture  Equiv. Course: No

F. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change CRJU 2500, Criminal Evidence and Procedure, to CRJU 3500.
Criminal Evidence and Procedure will be moved from Area F into Major Course Requirements for BS Criminal Justice majors.

CRJU 3500, CRIMINAL EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE
3-0-3
Prerequisite: CRJU 1010 and POLS 2100

Rationale: The change in course numbering reflects the combination of two courses (Criminal Evidence and Criminal Procedure) and is a more in-depth examination of the legal process as it applies to the various components within the criminal justice system.
This course should be taken by students with junior standing.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003  Cross-listed: None
Repeateable: No  Grading: Normal  Instruction Type: Lecture  Equiv. Course: No

G. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to move CRJU2150, Introduction to Criminal Law, from Area F to a lower division elective.

CRJU 2150, INTRODUCTION TO CRIMINAL LAW
3-0-3
Prerequisite: CRJU 1010 and POLS 2100

Rationale: Students are exposed to criminal law in several other courses and are required to take a 5000-level course in law and legal process.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003  Cross-listed: None
Repeateable: No  Grading: Normal  Instruction Type: Lecture  Equiv. Course: No

H. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change prerequisites of CRJU 3110, Critical Theory of Criminal Justice, from CRJU 2100 to CRJU 3150, or permission of the instructor.

Rationale: The change in prerequisites reflects the change in the course number of CRJU 2100 to CRJU 3150.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003 Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No Grading: Normal Instruction Type: Lecture Equiv. Course: No

A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change CRJU 3400, Corrections to CRJU 2410, Introduction to Corrections and move from an upper-division 3000 level course to a lower division 2000 level course. The redesigned course will also be moved from a Major Course Requirement into Area F and required for all AS and BS Criminal Justice majors.

Rationale: The change in course numbering reflects the logical sequencing so that students take this course after CRJU 1010 and are exposed to material in corrections that is more advanced material than the overview of corrections covered in CRJU 1010.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003 Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No Grading: Normal Instruction Type: Lecture Equiv. Course: No

A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change the prerequisite of CRJU 3410, Community-Based Treatment, from CRJU 3400 to CRJU 2410 or permission of the instructor.

Rationale: The change in prerequisites reflects the change in the course number of CRJU 3400 to CRJU 2410.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003 Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No Grading: Normal Instruction Type: Lecture Equiv. Course: No

A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change the prerequisite of CRJU 4500, Advanced Law of Evidence from CRJU 2500 to CRJU 3500.
Armstrong Atlantic State University
Minutes for the Arts & Sciences Curriculum Committee Meeting
Monday, December 9, 2002

CRJU 4500, ADVANCED LAW OF EVIDENCE 3-0-3
Prerequisite: CRJU 3500

Rationale: The change in prerequisites reflects the change in the course number of CRJU 2500 to CRJU 3500.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003 Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No Grading: Normal Instruction Type: Lecture Equiv. Course: No

L. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following: Proposal to change CRJU 4800, Internship I, from a letter grade to a Pass/Fail; and to add the following phrase to the course description: Pass/Fail grade mode.
CRJU 4800, INTERNSHIP I V-V-6
Prerequisite: permission of instructor or department
Description: Open to juniors or above. Application of academic knowledge in criminal justice setting. Joint supervision by faculty internship coordinator and agency officials. Open to transient students only with permission of the department head. Pass/Fail grade mode.

Rationale: The research paper requirement is being dropped from Internship I. Students will still be evaluated by supervisors and are still required to submit weekly field reports based on 20 hours a week in a field placement. However, a pass/fail grade mode is more appropriate considering the requirements.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003 Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No Grading: Pass/Fail Instruction Type: Lecture Equiv. Course: No

M. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following: Proposal to change CRJU 4810, Internship II, catalog entry to include the requirement of a substantial research paper.
CRJU 4810, INTERNSHIP II V-V-6
Prerequisite or corequisite: CRJU 4800
Description: Application of academic knowledge in criminal justice setting. Joint supervision by faculty internship coordinator and agency officials. Open to transient students only with permission of the department head. Requires a substantial research paper.

Rationale: Students who opt to take an additional 6 hours in internship will be required to write a substantial research paper in which they develop and display a broad understanding of academic knowledge as applied to the field. Students will still receive a letter grade in this course.
N. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to add CRJU 3150 as a second prerequisite to CRJU 5300U, Juvenile Delinquency.

CRJU 5300U, JUVENILE DELINQUENCY 3-0-3
Prerequisite: CRJU 1010 and CRJU 3150

Rationale: The material covered in CRJU 3150 is a logical and necessary precursor to CRJU 5300. CRJU 5300 builds in part on criminological theories as applied to juvenile delinquents and examines the recent empirical research in delinquency theory.

O. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change the prerequisites of CRJU 5500U, Law and Legal Process, from CRJU 1010 or HIST 1100 or POLS 1100 to CRJU 1010 and POLS 2100.
CRJU 5500U, LAW AND LEGAL PROCESS 3-0-3
Prerequisite: CRJU 1010 and POLS 2100

Rationale: These prerequisite changes are more appropriate from the content of CRJU 5500U.

OVERALL RATIONALE FOR CHANGES IN COURSE REQUIREMENTS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The revised curriculum reflects a logical sequencing of courses for criminal justice majors. Revisions are appropriate for the needs of students and to ensure that our majors graduate with a broad knowledge base and the theoretical sophistication to understand the practical realities of the field. These changes are based on a continuing commitment to graduate knowledgeable students who possess leadership abilities, integrity, and responsibility. The deletion of the three concentrations in the A.A. degree will simplify the program.

P. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to add the following course to the department’s offering:
POLS 3160, AMERICAN JUDICIAL POLITICS AND STRATEGIES 3-0-3
Prerequisite: HIST/POLS 1100 and POLS 2100
Description: A focused study of the roles played by the federal courts and judges in the American legal system, including political jurisprudence, politics of judicial selection; judicial decision making and strategies, and judicial review in a democracy.

Rationale: This course will add to and complement our department’s offerings of courses on criminal, constitutional, and administrative law. It will give the student the “why” and “how” to complement the “what” that comes with the courses in substantive law. It will broaden our pre-law program and should become a staple of the legal studies minor.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003  Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No    Grading: Normal    Instruction Type: Lecture    Equiv. Course: No

Q. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to add the following course to the department’s offering:
POLS 3290, CONSTITUTIONAL LAW OF FOREIGN POLICY 3-0-3
Prerequisite: HIST/POLS 1100 and POLS 2100
Description: An exploration of the narrow intersection of American constitutional law and foreign policy, powers of the executive and legislative in foreign policy, and issues such as the war, treaty, and spending powers.

Rationale: This is a little explored, often ignored area of law and government that has become increasingly important in the past several years. It will round out the department’s offerings in two other constitutional law courses (the federal system and civil liberties/civil rights), and bolster our legal studies minor/pre-law concentration.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003  Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No    Grading: Normal    Instruction Type: Lecture    Equiv. Course: No

R. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to add the following course to the department’s offering:
POLS 4160, THE AMERICAN CONGRESS 3-0-3
Prerequisite: POLS/HIST 1100 or POLS 2100
Description: Bicameral structure and function of the national legislature. Congress as policy-maker and institution of representative government. Role of political parties in Congress.

Rationale: Replaces POLS 5120U/G with a more focused course on the institution of Congress.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003  Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No    Grading: Normal    Instruction Type: Lecture    Equiv. Course: No
S. The following curricula action was remanded to the department for clarification:

Proposal to revise the course description of POLS 2100, Introduction to Political Science:

T. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:

Proposal to change the course name and to revise the course description of POLS 4950, Seminar in Political Science:

POLS 4950, Seminar in Political Science

Prerequisites: POLS 2100 and MATH 2200

Description: Seminar in Political Science. Open to seniors. Selected political science topics. Oral and written presentations of student research, in conformity with departmental guidelines.

Description: Methods and techniques of research in the social sciences especially oriented to the needs of the political science major. Emphasis on evaluating research. Open to juniors and seniors only.

Rationale: Knowledge of and the ability to employ various research methodologies is a must for all POLS majors. This course will also establish a base for a new program in Applied Politics/Political Management program. The seminar in political science (Capstone) no longer serves the purposes of the Department. Competence in the field for graduating seniors will be shown through compilation of term and/or research papers from at least four 4000-level courses.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003   Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No   Grading: Normal   Instruction Type: Lecture   Equiv. Course: No

U. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:

Proposal to change the course name and to revise the course description of POLS 3470, Politics of the European Union:

POLS 3470, Politics of the European Union

Prerequisites: POLS 1150 or POLS 2100 or European 2000

Description: POLS 3470 Politics of the European Union. European Union political, parliamentary, and judicial institutions; internal EU policies and political integration; EU foreign policies, particularly with the Unites States; and EU security issues and NATO. Description: Political systems of the European Union member countries; European federalism; EU political and security institutions and policy-making; integration and expansion of the union.

Rationale: This course combines POLS 3470 Politics of the European Union and POLS 3480 Governments of Western Europe. The merger of the two allows one professor in one course to cover both subjects and still meet the criteria of the European Certificate.
A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change the course name and to revise the course description of POLS 3420, Politics of Underdevelopment: Africa and Latin America:
POLS 3420, Politics of Underdevelopment: Africa and Latin America
Goverments of Africa
3-0-3
Prerequisite: POLS 1150 or POLS 2100

Rationale: Replaces the former course (Politics of Underdevelopment: Africa and Latin America) gives the course specific focus on Africa. The department hopes to re-introduce a distinct course on Latin American politics should future staffing levels permit.

A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change the name, course number, and course description of POLS 4280, Seminar in Global Politics:
POLS 4280 5280, Seminar in Global Politics: Theory of International Relations
3-0-3
Prerequisite: POLS 2290 and either HIST 1100 or POLS 1100
Description: Relations among nations with emphasis on structure of international power politics, causes of war, and approaches to peace. Covers some of the pertinent global issues of the post-Cold War Era, e.g., nuclear proliferation, multinational corporations, environmental and health issues, and human rights issues.

Rationale: The name and course number are being changed to better reflect the subject of the course and its position in the curriculum as a strictly undergraduate (non-seminar) course.
X. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following: Proposal to delete the following courses from the department’s offering:
1. All public administration courses. The department is dropping the public administration certificate.
2. POLS 2150, Careers in Government and Public Administration (already deleted from catalog, but needs to be deleted from Banner)
3. POLS 2201, State and Local Government
4. POLS/PUBL 2250, International Organizations (Core Area B Course)
5. POLS 2601, Foundations of Public Administration
6. POLS 3480, Governments of Western Europe
7. POLS/PUBL 4010, Politics of the Budget Process
8. POLS/PUBL 4030, Public Policy Development
9. POLS/PUBL 4050, Principles of Public Management
10. POLS 5120, Congress and Political Parties

Rationale: The department is dropping the public administration certificate.

Y. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following: Proposal to change the course name and/or designation of the following courses (course descriptions remain the same.):
1. POLS/PUBL 4180, Administrative Law 3-0-3

Rationale: The department is dropping the Public Administration certificate and all other PUBL courses.

2. POLS 3490, Transformation of the Former Soviet Union Government of Russia 3-0-3

Rationale: The change of name reflects current reality.

Z. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following: Proposal to make the following change to the catalog: In the “Progress Requirements” section, the language should be amended to read, “POLS majors will be required to earn a “C” or better in all POLS courses.” (Formerly, a “C” was required only in upper division courses.)

AA. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following: Proposal to add the following course to the department’s offering:
SOCI 3450/POLS 3450, Political Sociology of Nationalism 3-0-3
Prerequisite: SOCI 1101 or POLS 2100
Description: Various theories of nationalism and their social, historical economic and cultural contexts. Cultural, ethnic, and national identity and conflict are the focus. Ethnic, religious, civic, economic and anti-colonial nationalism are examined in a global perspective.

Rationale: Besides being an area of specialization for the instructor, it is a good interdisciplinary course for both sociology and political science. It fits in with the comparative politics area for political science majors and increases the limited selection of courses for the sociology minor.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003 Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No Grading: Normal Instruction Type: Lecture Equiv. Course: No

BB. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:
Proposal to change the description of SOCI 3150, Sociology of the Family:
SOCI 3150, SOCIOLOGY OF THE FAMILY 3-0-3
Prerequisite: SOCI 1101
Description: Institutions having major responsibility for socializing members of society including various forms and types of families.
Description: Social, cultural, and economic forces that affect families. Topics may include sexuality, partner selection, gender issues, parenting and children, housework and paid work, conflict and violence, divorce and remarriage, care-giving, and alternative families.

CURCAT: Effective Term: Spring 2003 Cross-listed: None
Repeatable: No Grading: Normal Instruction Type: Lecture Equiv. Course: No
OVERALL RATIONALE FOR CHANGES IN CURRICULUM POLITICAL SCIENCE:

The revised curriculum reflects a revision of course offerings in light of pending personnel changes in the department, and an alignment of subject areas according to individual faculty areas of expertise.

Capstone Course: POLS 4950 Seminar in Political Science

POLS 4950 Political Research Methods

III. Items from the Department of Chemistry & Physics were tabled upon advice of the Dean of Arts & Sciences.

IV. From the Departments of Biology, Chemistry & Physics, Criminal Justice, Social & Political Science, and the Office of the Dean:

A. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to accept the following:

Proposal to add a Certificate in Forensic Science to the University’s offering:

Students will receive a certificate in Forensic Science when they complete this sequence of biology, chemistry, and criminal justice courses:

1. BIOL 2500, PRINCIPLES OF MODERN BIOLOGY 2-0-2
2. BIOL 3010, MODERN BIOLOGY LABORATORY 0-4-1
3. CHEM 2300, PRINCIPLES OF CHEMICAL ANALYSIS 3-4-4
4. CHEM 3100, CHEMICAL FORENSICS 3-4-4
5. One additional course taken from:
   a. BIOL 3300, ENTOMOLOGY 3-4-4
   b. BIOL 3530, IMMUNOLOGY AND SEROLOGY 3-3-4
   c. BIOL 3200, TAXONOMY AND IDENTIFICATION OF FLOWERING PLANTS 1-7-4
   d. BIOL 4090, MOLECULAR BIOLOGY 1-8-4
   e. CHEM 2102, ORGANIC CHEMISTRY II 3-0-3
   f. CHEM 3300, INSTRUMENTAL ANALYSIS 3-4-4
   g. CRJU 2200, CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION 3-0-3

6. CRJU 3200, CRIMINALISTICS 3-0-3 or an internship in forensic science

Rationale: As the methodology of criminal investigators becomes more firmly rooted in the natural and physical sciences, it is important that practitioners in the criminal justice system have a better foundation in the sciences and that more persons whose primary training is in science become criminal justice professionals. This certificate builds on strong Armstrong programs in chemistry, biology, and criminal justice to address these needs.

This certificate will be of interest primarily to undergraduate students with majors or minors in biology or chemistry and to post-baccalaureate students who have substantial academic backgrounds in biology or chemistry. As a by-product, the existence of the certificate will serve our Admissions Office which regularly receives inquiries of students interested in forensic science.
